

The airways belong to the people and it is your responsibility to see that the allocation of such airways is in the best interests of the people. To allow concentrated ownership of our media will allow the likes of Rupert Murdoch to propagandize the American people along the lines of his self-interest. It must not be allowed. You will have betrayed the American people if you allow unfettered ownership of our airways.